

Statement of Organizing Committee, ICABS-2020 on rescheduling of Conference

This is to inform all the worthy participants, society members, organizers and all individuals associated directly or indirectly with the “International Conference on Agricultural and Biological Sciences 2020(ICABS-2020)” scheduled to be held at Kathmandu, Nepal w.e.f. February 17-19, 2020, has been rescheduled due to International Public Health Emergency. World Health Organisation (WHO) has declared the novel coronavirus (2019-nCoV) outbreak a Public Health Emergency of International Concern (<https://www.who.int/emergencies/diseases/en/>).

Due to the prevailing situation regarding coronavirus, advisories issued and official directives by different countries, states the Organising Committee has taken a unanimous decision to reschedule the conference in the month of May/June, 2020. The new dates shall be communicated at an earliest.

We, on behalf of Organising Committee, regret the inconvenience, but safety of our delegates shall remain a priority for us.

Organizing Committee